

Rome's Wars in Parthia: Blood in the Sand

The leader of an empire invades Iraq. He has inadequate intelligence and underestimates the resistance of the locals, but he believes his overwhelming military. Rome's Wars in Parthia has 10 ratings and 2 reviews. Steven said: A very detailed (albeit somewhat dry) work on Rome's wars with Parthia. Rome's Wars in Parthia is an important read for anyone interested in ancient military history, and one that can be enjoyed by the interested layman as well. I was interested in this book because the campaigns of Rome in the East are often glossed over in the more general histories of the time.
